7.15. p.m. We Interrupt This Empire...

Gives an insight into the resistance to the Iraq war in America. Documents the direct actions that shut down the financial district of San Francisco in the weeks following the United States' invasion of Iraq, as well as providing a critique of the media coverage of the war, and exploring such issues as the Military Industrial Complex, attacks on civil liberties, and the United States' current imperialist drive. (52 minutes)

Break for discussion and refreshments.

8.45 p.m. Uncovered: The War On Iraq

Chronicles the Bush Administration's determined quest to invade Iraq following 9/11. The film deconstructs the administration's case for war through interviews with US intelligence and defence officials, foreign service experts and UN weapons inspectors - including a former CIA director, a former ambassador to Saudi Arabia and even President Bush's Secretary of the Army. Their analyses and conclusions are sobering and disturbing.
